

SONIC THE HEDGEHOG SEASON 3

CHAPTER 3

Coast's clear, Sugah-Rote!

Do yer thing!

Got it, Bunnie.

Man, this thing is just amazing!

I mean, the scale of it is impressive enough, but the precision of the design, the expert use of materials...!

Yeah, ya might wanna save the Techno-Geek stuff 'til after we're outta here, Sugah-Rote...

OK, Bunnie, that should do it.

Let's get this back to Sally, and fast!

How's the translation coming, Nicole?

Translation 75% complete, Sally.

No offense, Sal, but I think you're wastin' your time.

Why bother with the stupid thing?

We should be out there takin' the fight to Needle Nose 'n' Captain Crabmeat, not gawkin' at some Scroll just 'cuz some lamebrain wearin' a potato sack told us to.

Because that "Guardian" said it had important information on it, information that could help make dealing with Naugus a lot easier.

And if some guy in a hood says it, it must be true!

Translation complete, Sally.

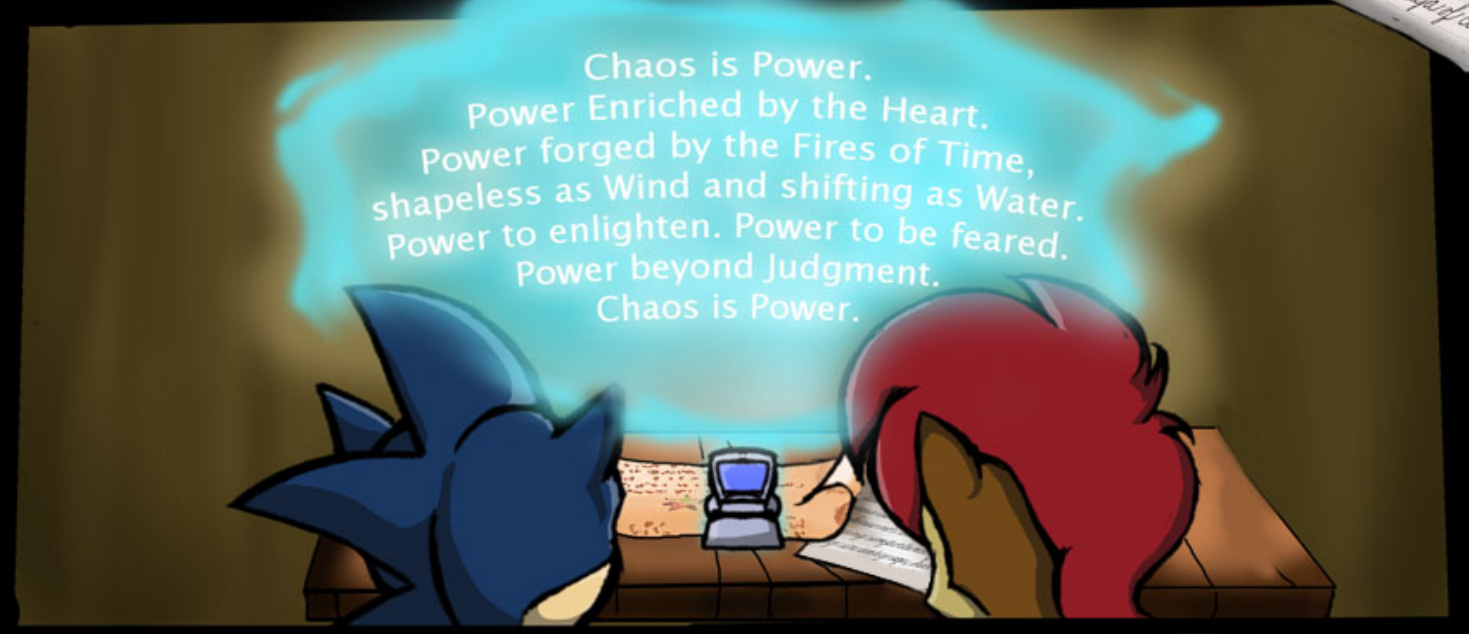

I'll let the Scroll speak for itself when it's translated, then.

Oh, right, 'cuz a piece of unreadable paper is so trustworthy.

Well, I guess we're gonna find out...
Nicole, display translation.

Acknowledged, Sally.

Chaos is Power.
Power Enriched by the Heart.
Power forged by the Fires of Time,
shapeless as Wind and shifting as Water.
Power to enlighten. Power to be feared.
Power beyond Judgment.
Chaos is Power.

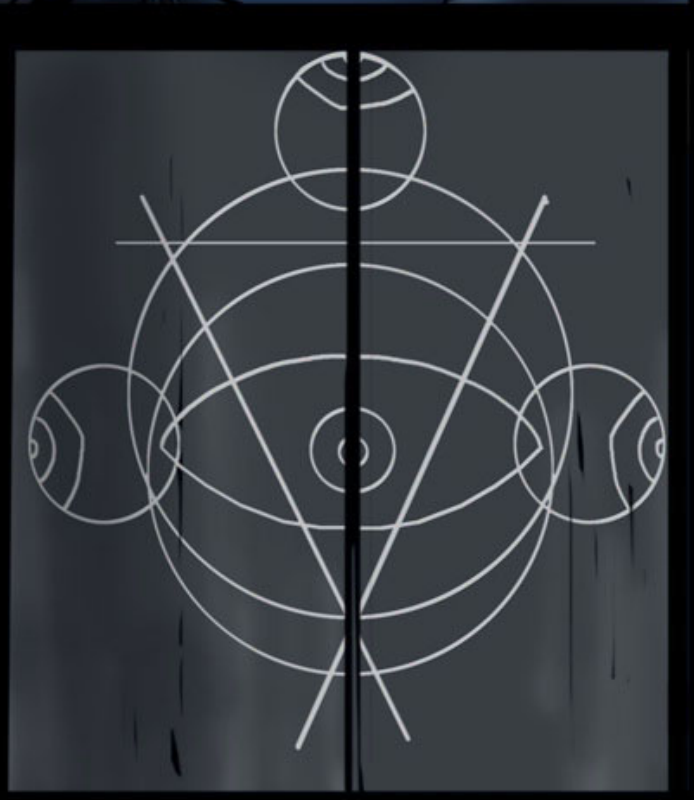

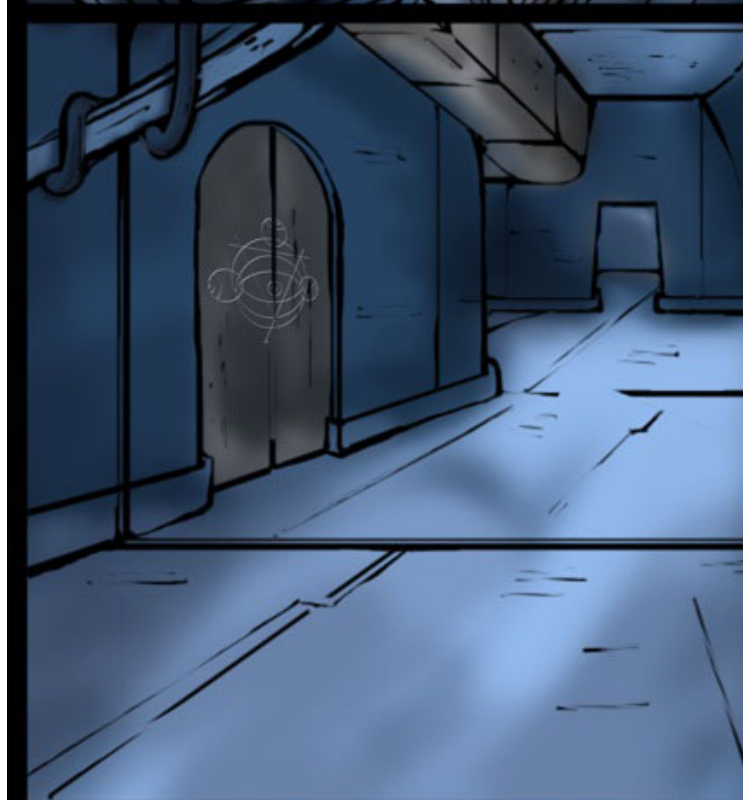

A riddle...

No wonder I didn't like that stupid piece 'o' paper!

Looks like we've still got a bit of work to do on this...

This is no mere "interruption", Naugus.

cough

cough

The Chaos Eye is ready for a test run.

I need you to head out into the city so I can see if it can detect "magical" energies such as yours...

Or that of the Chaos Emeralds.

I am to be your Guinea Pig, then?

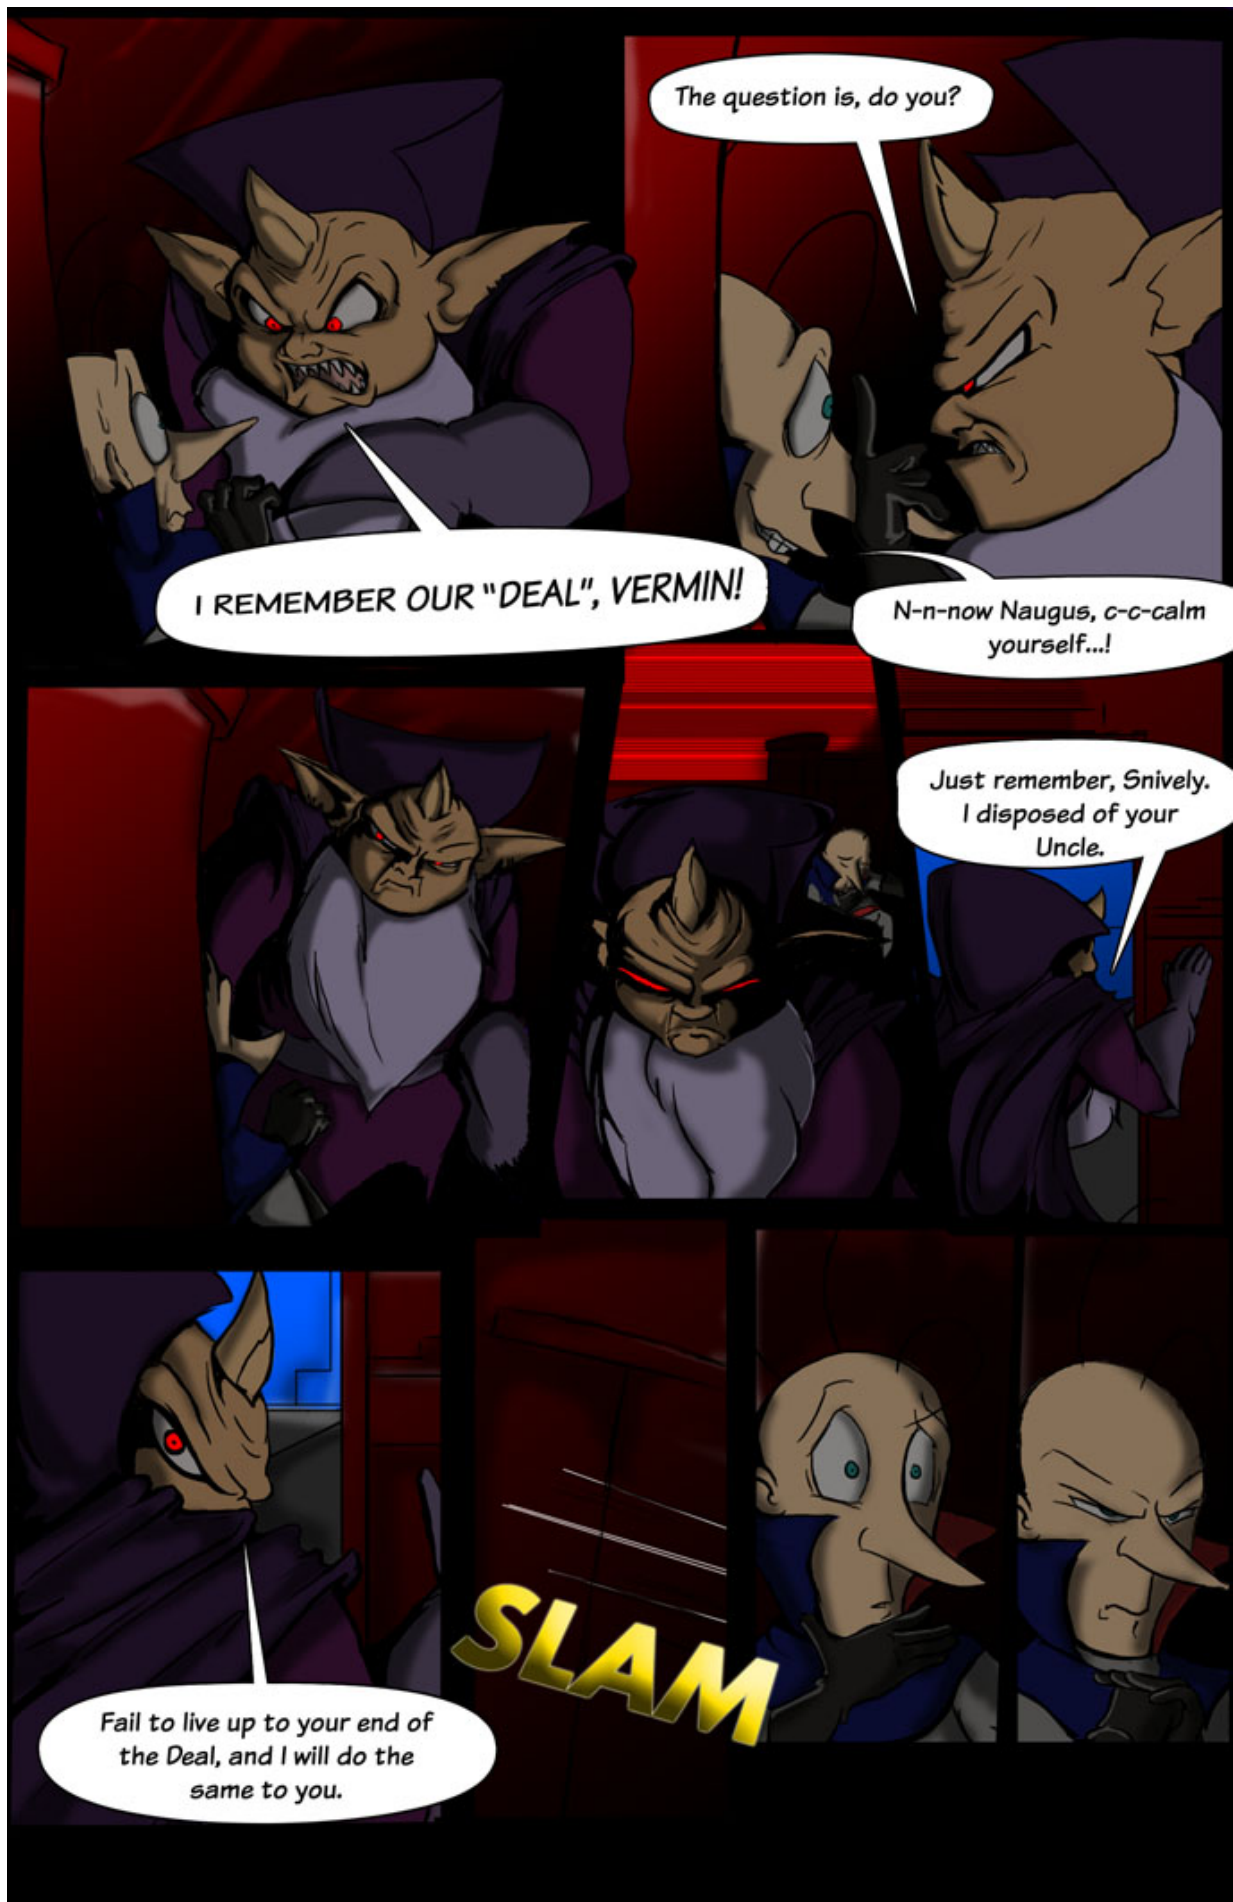

Would you prefer "Lab Rat"?

Do not test me, little man...

Now, now.. Don't forget about our-

EEKKKK!!

SMASH

The question is, do you?

I REMEMBER OUR "DEAL", VERMIN!

N-n-now Naugus, c-c-calm yourself...!

Just remember, Snively.
I disposed of your Uncle.

Fail to live up to your end of the Deal, and I will do the same to you.

SLAM

Good to see you two home safely...

Did you succeed in learning more about that strange structure?

Worry no more, Sally-girl!

Me 'n' Sugah-Rote here have everything ya ever wanted t'know about that oversized Trashcan but were afraid t'ask.

Bunnie and I made sure to photograph every angle of the machine to get the best impression of its exact design.

Close examination of the machine's details suggests it's designed as an extremely powerful Scanning Apparatus, specifically for detecting high-level Energy Signatures.

What, that's it?

No weapons, no big super death ray, just a mondo-size scanner?

Big deal...

Actually, Sonic, yes it is.

Don't forget, the Power Rings you use are highly concentrated sources of Energy; this machine would be able to track them easily

Oh man...!

...allowing it to move across the whole planet with its advanced scanning tech.

...it could track the Power Stone.

But that's not the worst news.

It's my personal theory, judging by the size and precise structure of the machine, that Snively intends to turn it into a sort of rocket ship once it's operational...

And if it can track Power Rings...

Then we gotta blind that eye before Snotley gets it in the sky!

Rotor, how long do you think it'll be before that device is completely operational?

I...I can't say for sure, the degree of construction was very complex, and from a distance it's hard to judge...

But if I had to guess, I'd say within the next 12 hours, factoring in possible testing procedures...

Any specific "moves" in mind, Sally-girl?

It would help if we knew more about how this machine functioned, but lacking time and more information, we'll have to be blunt.

...Huh?

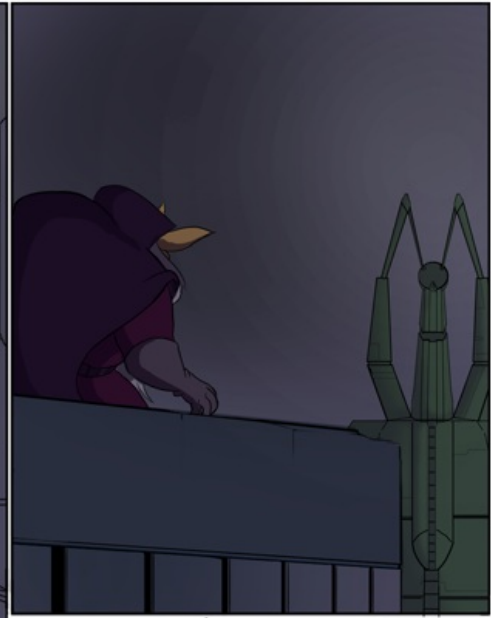

That doesn't give us a lot of time...we'll have to make a move tonight!

Hey, don't sweat it, Sal.

"Blunt" is my specialty.

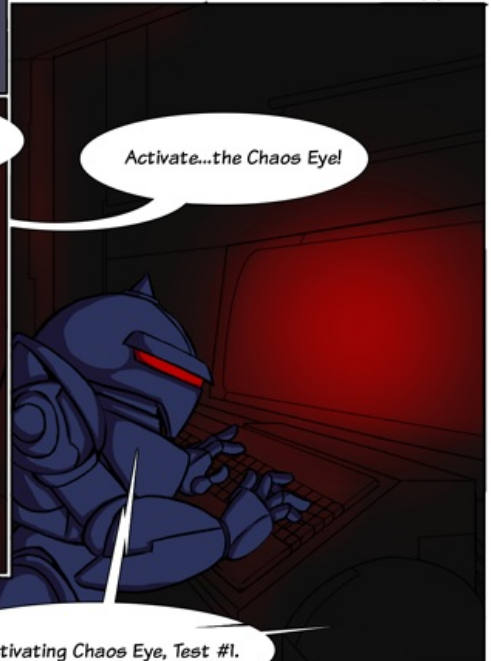

Naugus, this is Snively! Are you in position?

Yes, Snively, I'm "in position"! Get on with it!

Do at least try to show some patience, Naugus. Now then...

Activate...the Chaos Eye!

Activating Chaos Eye, Test #1.

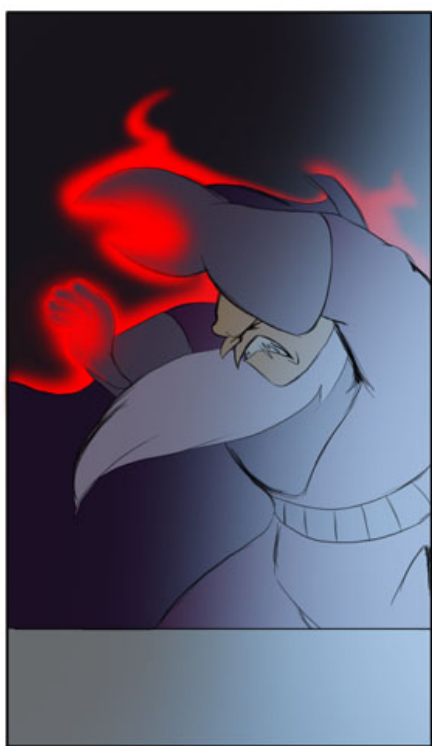

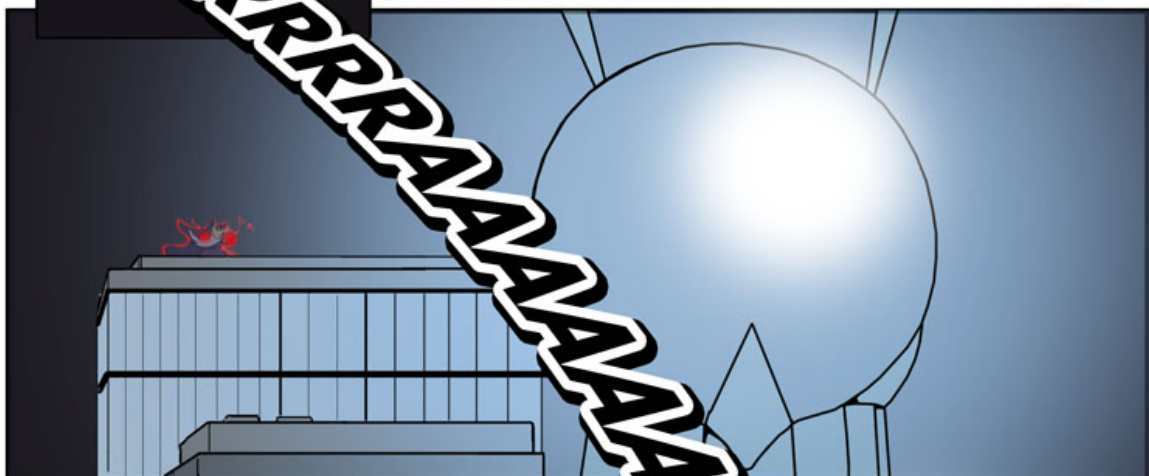

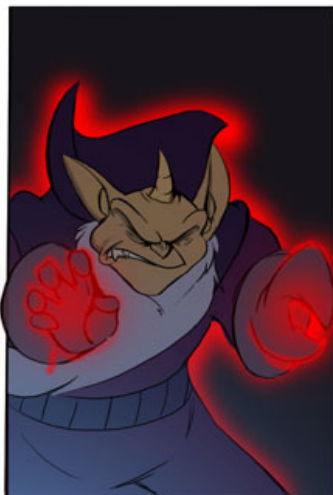

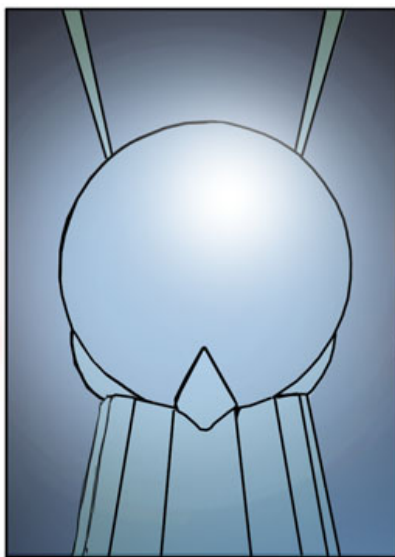

The Eye is activating, Naugus! Focus your power, now!

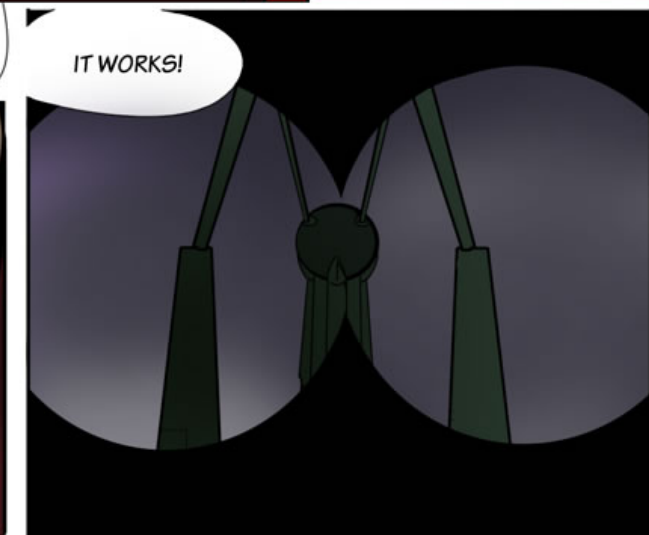

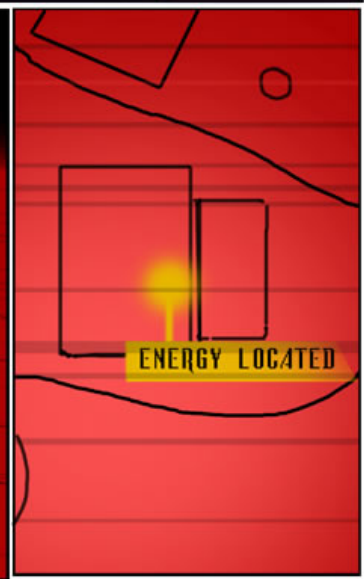

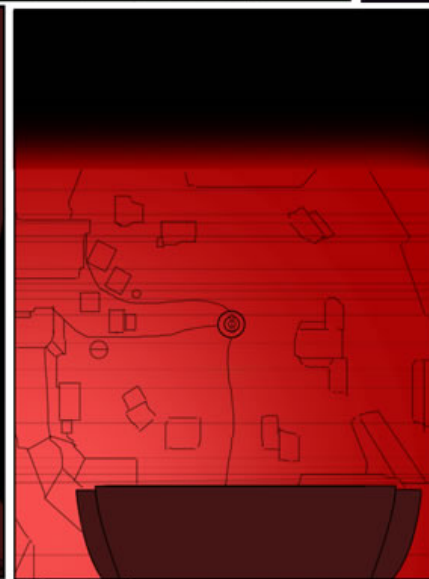

VRRRRRRRR

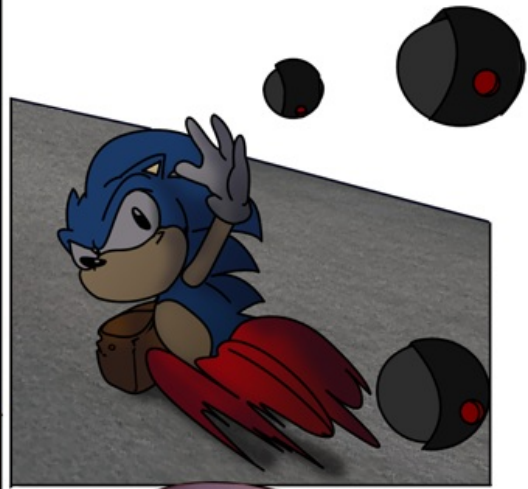

You had better be worth all this trouble, you wretched device...

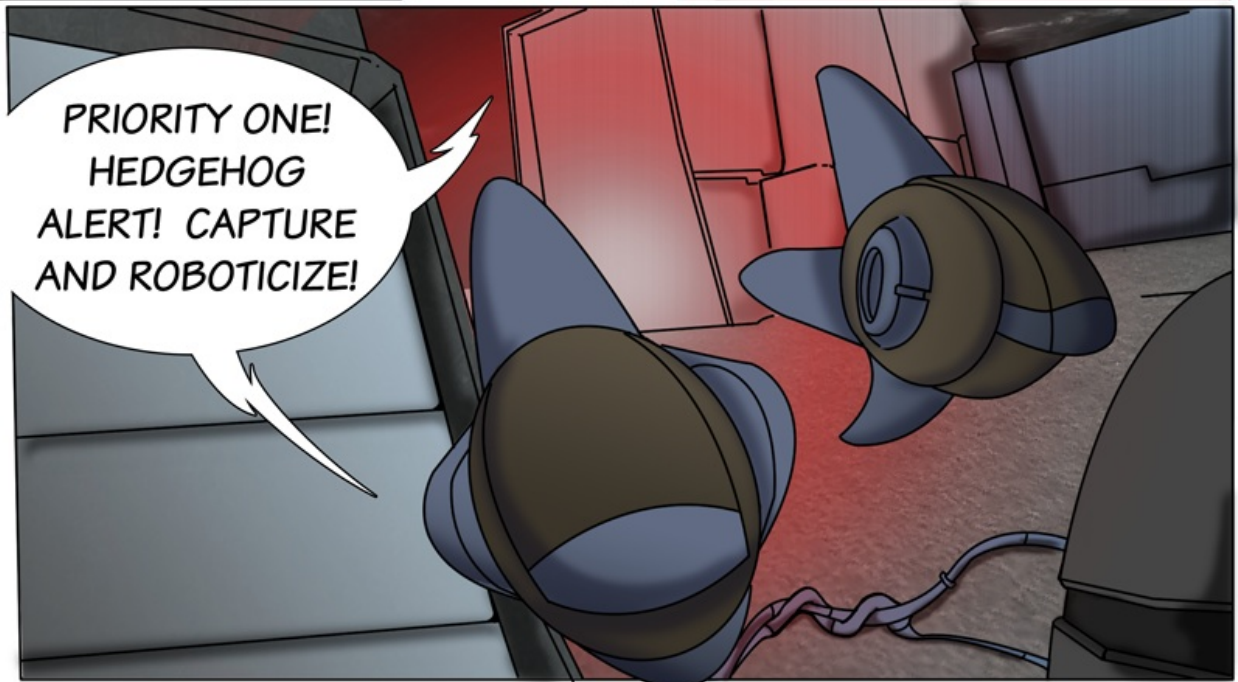

HRRRRRRRAAAAAAAAAAGGGGGGGHHHHH

Time for a l'l sound 'n' fury!

PRIORITY ONE!
HEDGEHOG ALERT! CAPTURE AND ROBOTICIZE!

SLAM!

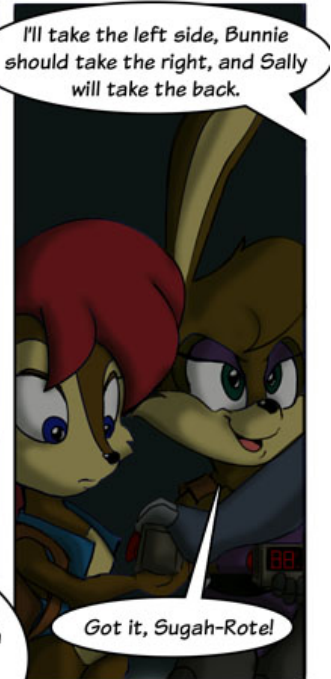

We won't have much time before Snivley realizes we're in here, so let's get the charges set fast!

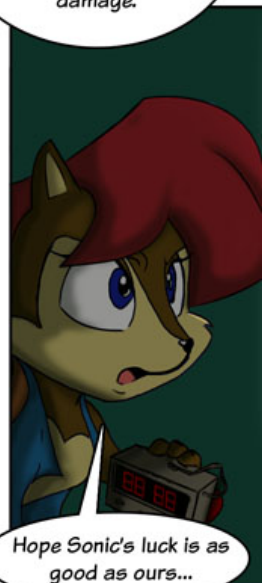

Remember, we want to lay the explosives out in a triangle across the wall to do the most damage.

I'll take the left side, Bunnie should take the right, and Sally will take the back.

Got it, Sugah-Rote!

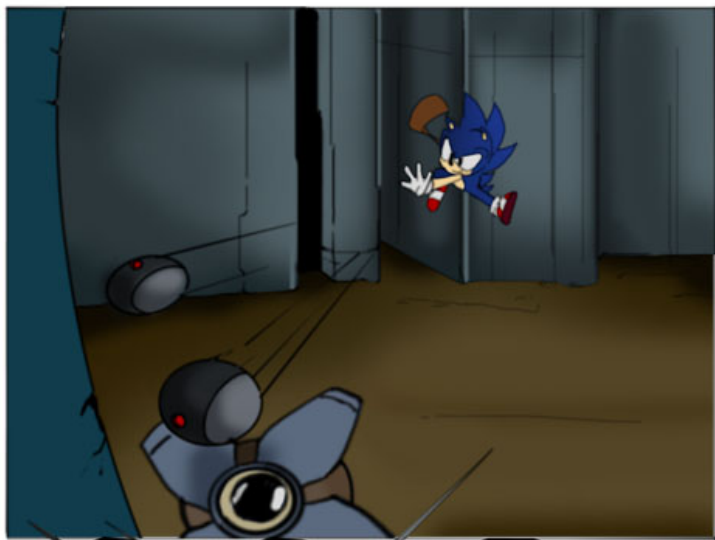

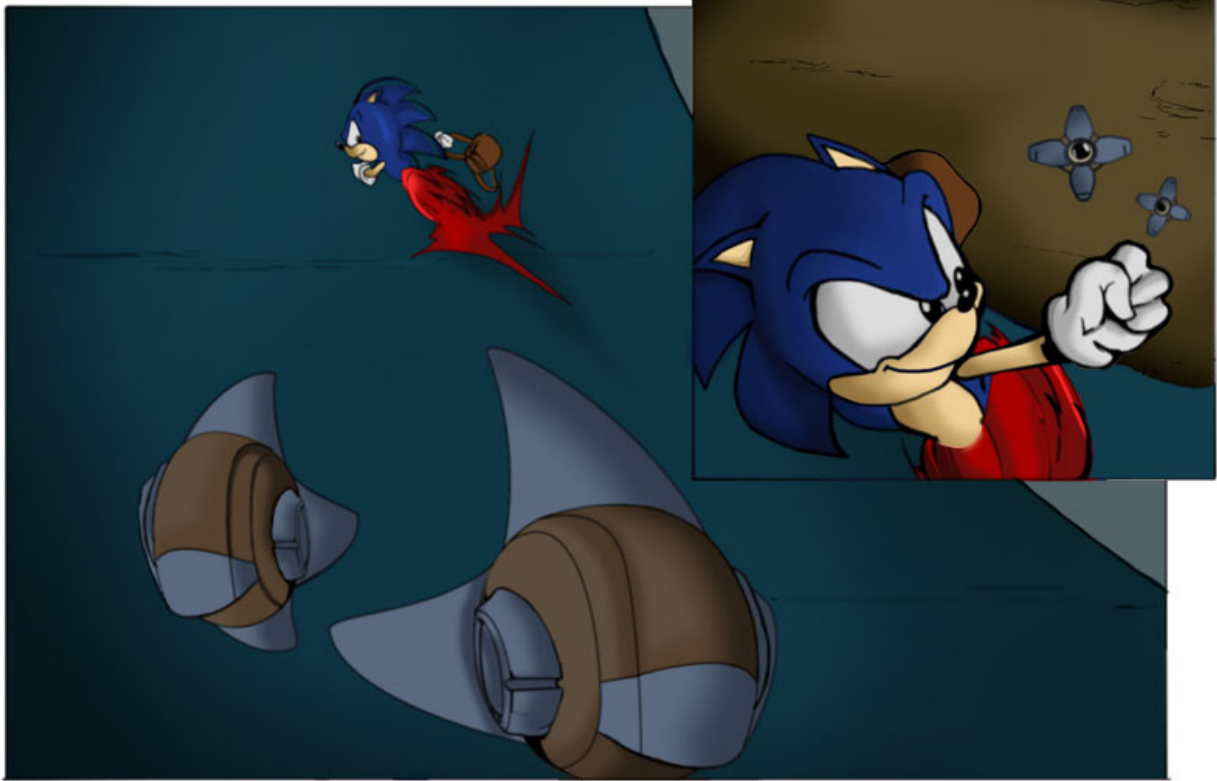

Hope Sonic's luck is as good as ours...

Yeesh!

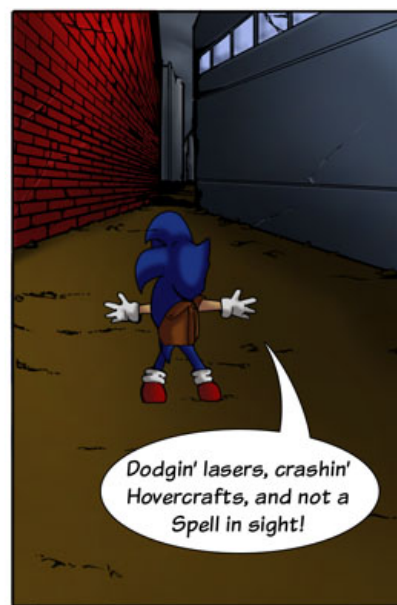

Remind me to never ask you guys for directions again!

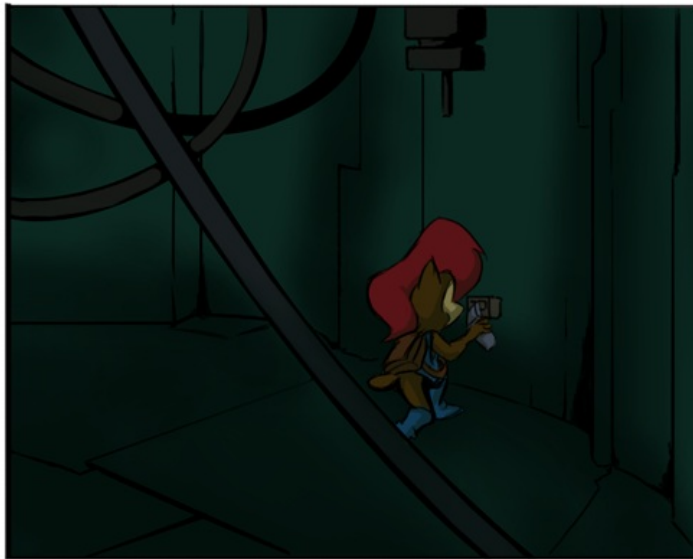

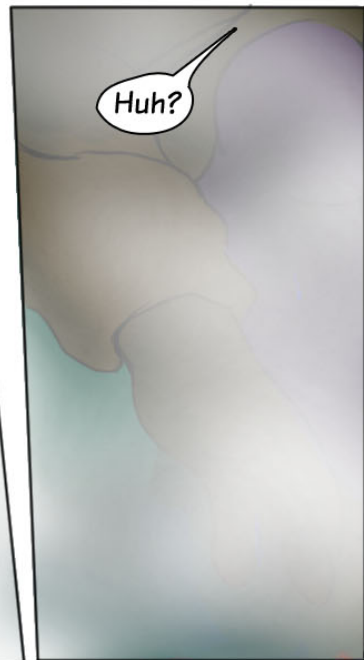

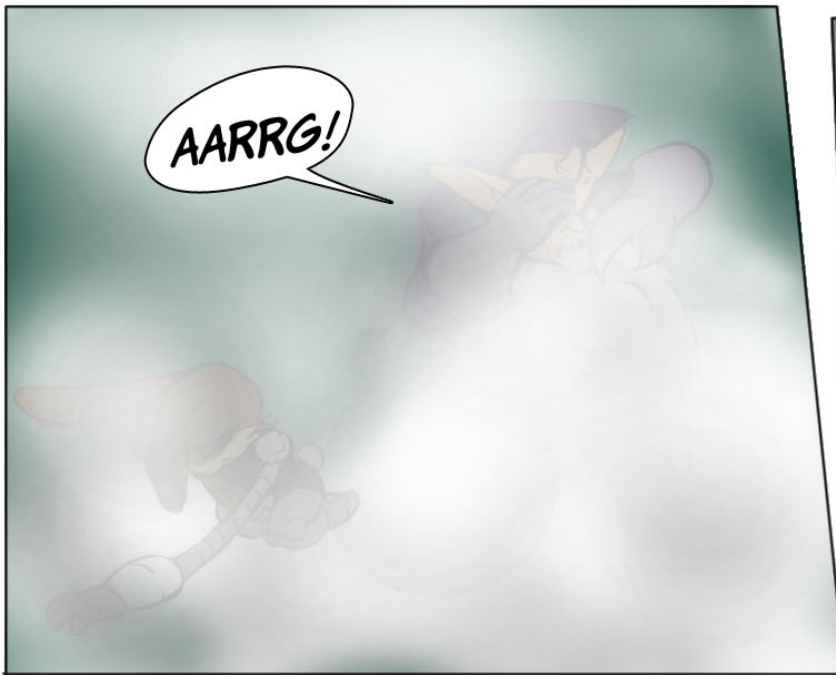

BOOM

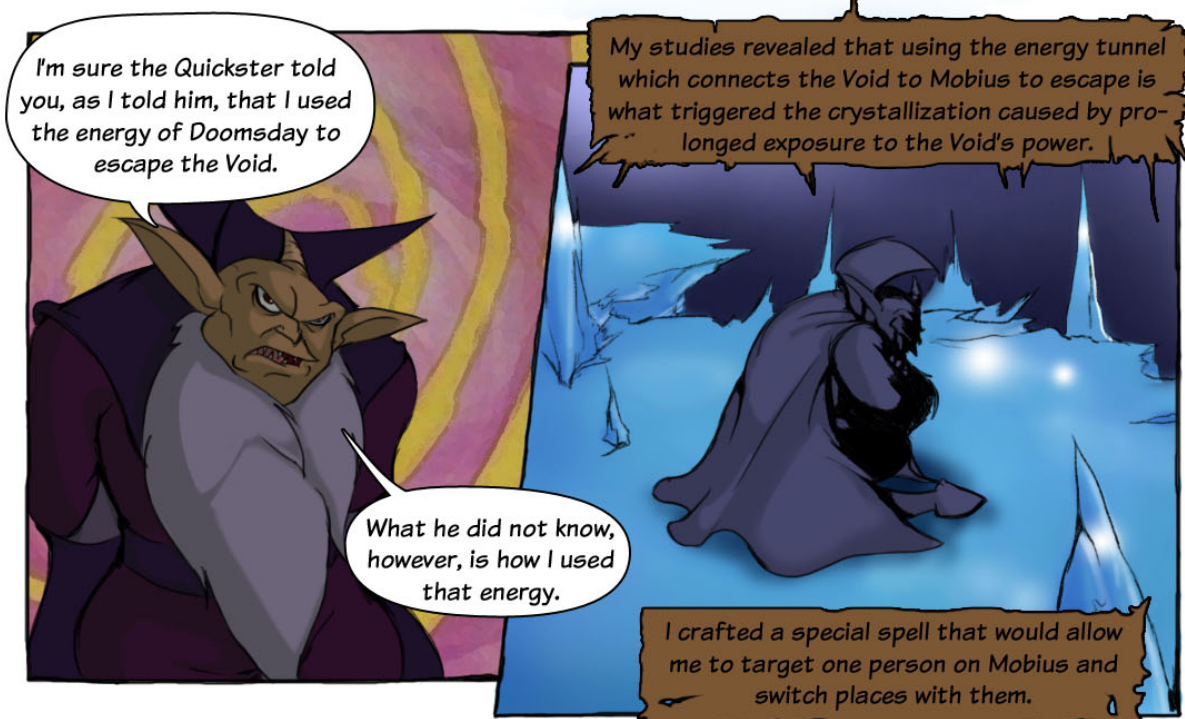

After all, it was Robotnik who trapped me in the Void to begin with. It was only fitting he take my place and set me free, all in one fell swoop.

My initial attempts to target him failed, of course, for I lacked the power to see my spell through fully. Once my chance arose, however, I took it with pleasure.

Do you understand now, Princess?

Your precious father is now trapped with his most hated enemy...

--And only I have the power to free him.

And free him I will. If you help me achieve my own goals first!

So...what shall it be, Princess? Provide me your aid, and in return be granted the safe return of your father?

Or forge on, hopelessly alone, while Snively draws ever closer to claiming the wonders of this world?

gulp

...foolish.
But so be it.

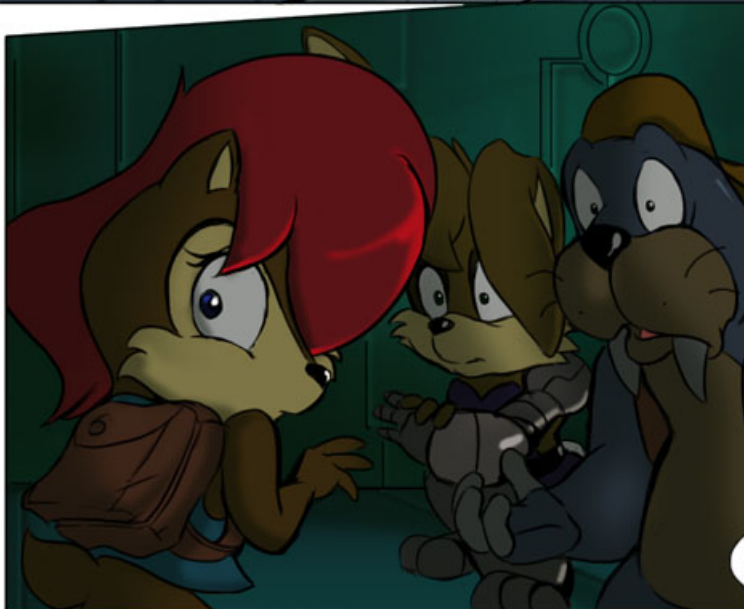

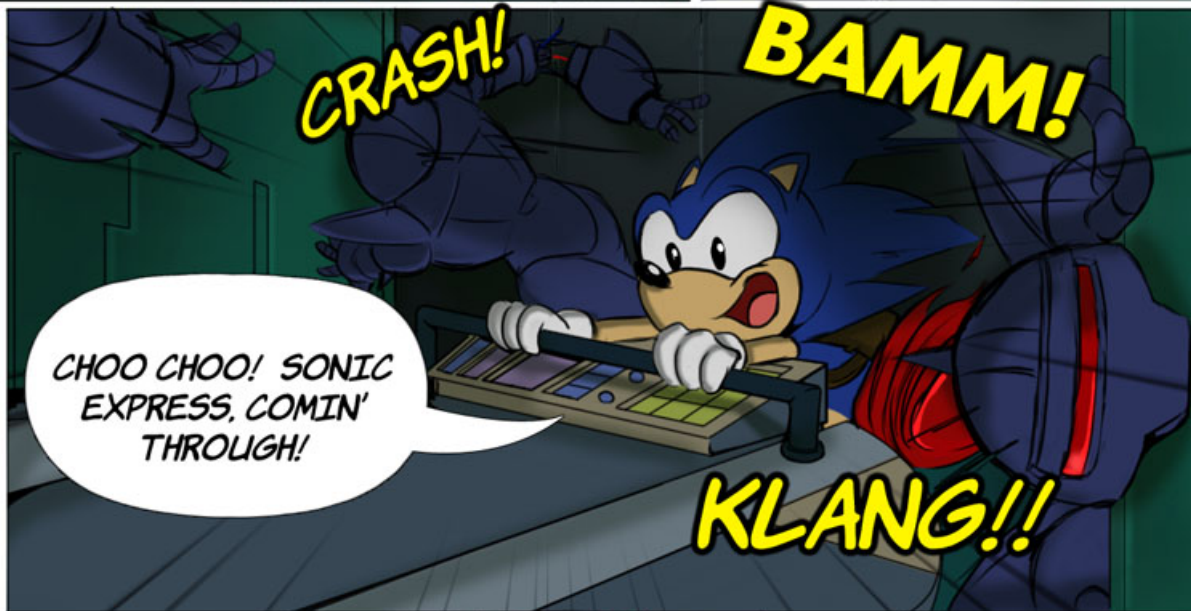

After all...

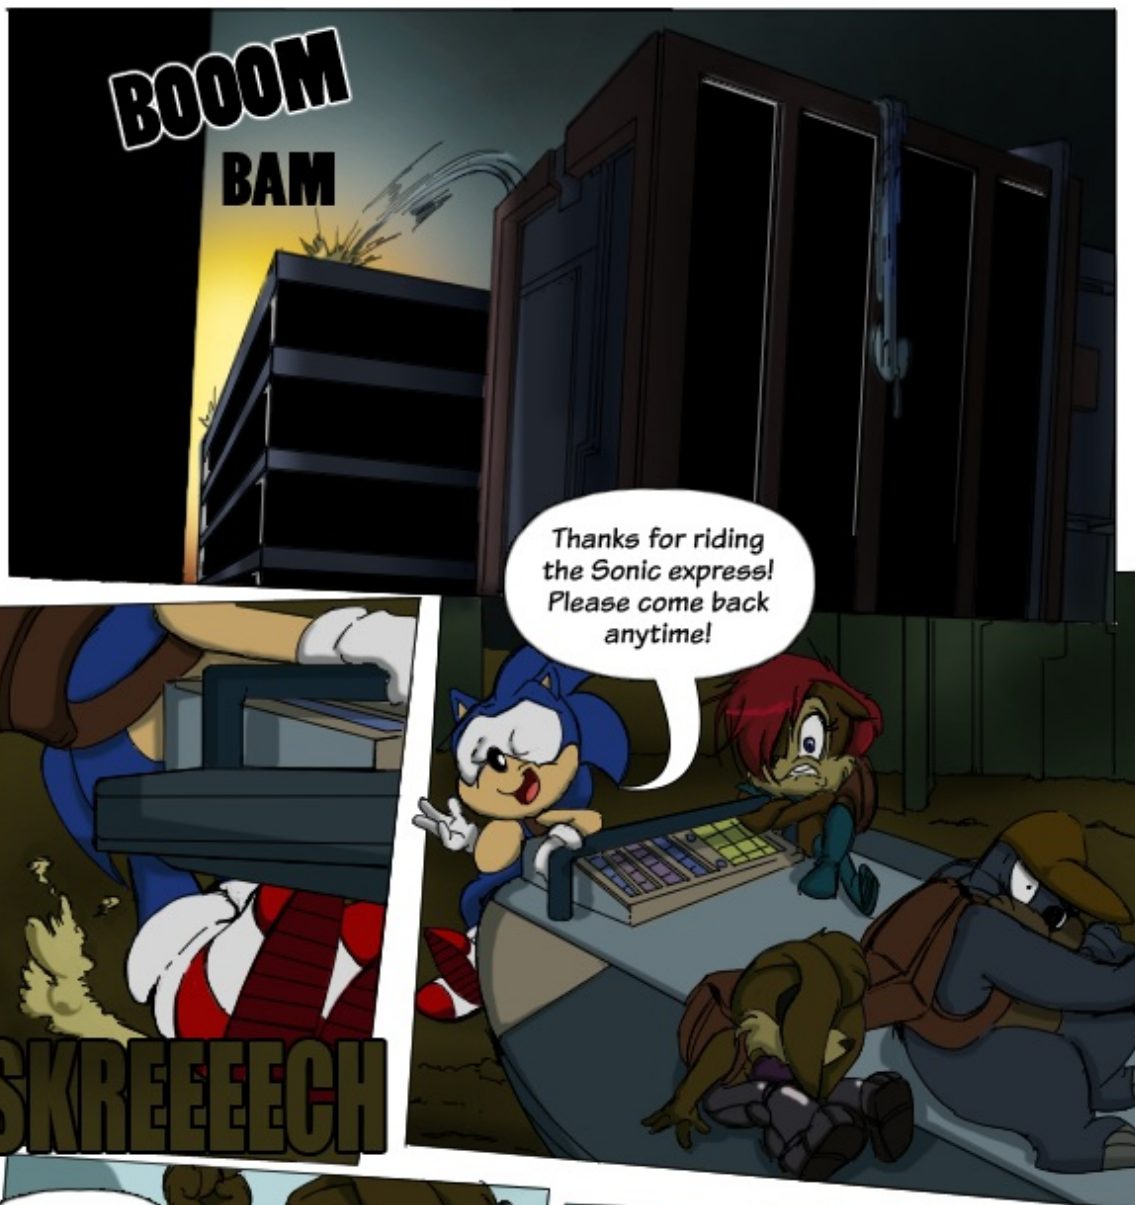

In the end, I win either way.
